

Destroyers Crash in Pacific

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 (AP).—The Navy Department announced today that the destroyers Worden and Reid were in a collision during manoeuvres last night off the California coast. Both vessels were damaged but there were no injuries to personnel. The two destroyers proceeded immediately to Mare Island Navy Yard under their own power.